|---------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ___ 1. Recognize your potential for moral failure.            | A. I may need to avoid certain places or people in order to stay out of temptation's way.   |
| ___ 2. Realize that you don't have to give in.                | B. I can't be pure on my own. I need God.                                                   |
| ___ 3. Resolve to be pure.                                    | C. I cannot indulge my flesh in one area and expect to conquer it in another.               |
| ___ 4. Remove all bitterness.                                 | D. If I have fallen, God wants to forgive and restore me.                                   |
| ___ 5. Restrain your fleshly desires.                         | E. Forgiving past hurts increases my resistance to sexual temptation.                       |
| ___ 6. Reject anything that could lead you back into bondage. | F. I need to keep in mind just how destructive sin can be.                                  |
| ___ 7. Run from every form of evil.                           | G. I need to determine to obey God before I'm faced with temptation.                        |
| ___ 8. Renew your mind with the Word of God.                  | H. The prayers and accountability of others can help me in this battle.                     |
| ___ 9. Recruit help.                                          | I. God's grace is available to grant me victory over moral sin.                             |
| ___ 10. Remember the consequences.                            | J. I need to engraft God's Word into my thought life.                                       |
| ___ 11. Refuse to remain in defeat and depression.            | K. I, like every believer, am vulnerable to the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes. |
| ___ 12. Rely on the Holy Spirit.                              | L. If I find myself in a potentially compromising situation, I need to flee!                |
