

Use the clues and refer to pages 68–71 to help you complete the crossword and see what Titus 2 teaches is the right attitude toward children.

ACROSS

- 1 A woman needs to learn how to be a husband-liker and _____.
- 5 A Greek word for “to deeply like, approve, welcome, and be fond of.”
- 6 To train a novice to be a child-liker is to teach what is _____. (See Titus 2:3-4)
- 7 A type of love that women need to learn how to cultivate toward children.

DOWN

- 2 Love is both a decision of your head and a feeling of your _____.
- 3 Phileō says, “I deeply like and _____ you.”
- 4 Being a child-liker is a state of being. It’s a _____ that values and appreciates children.

ANSWERS
 1. child-liker
 2. heart
 3. enjoy
 4. mindset
 5. phileo
 6. good
 7. friendly

Would you characterize yourself as a “child-liker”? Why or why not?
