1. C. S. Lewis, “First and Second Things,” in God in the Dock, ed. Walter Hooper (Grand Rapids, MI: William B. Eerdmans Publishing Co., 1970), 310.
2. There is no evidence that Gandhi actually ever said this, but something very similar was said by an early twentieth-century Indian philosopher. Regardless of the source, it very effectively captures the mindset of many people who have rejected Christianity based on the lives of Christians.
3. James 4:8 is a possible exception, where James urges the double-minded and proud to repent. In 1 Timothy 1:15, Paul seems to be referring to his background as a persecutor (cf. 1 Cor. 15:9). The New Testament almost always uses “sinner” to refer to our past or those who are not yet redeemed.
4. Rick Warren, The Purpose Driven Life: What on Earth Am I Here For? (Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, 2012), 149.
5. The Daily Walk Bible (Carol Stream, IL: Tyndale House Publishers, 2013).
